

FLEISHER
art begins within

AGTS SPRING LECTURE!

FRIDAY, May 5, 2017 10:00 AM

Samuel S. Fleisher Art Memorial

719 Catherine Street, Philadelphia, PA 19147

Discover this Historical Hidden Gem! The Oldest Community Art School in America.

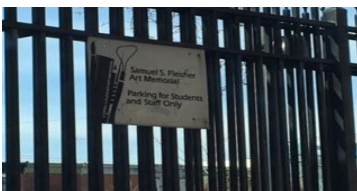

A lecture on the history of the FLEISHER, Graphic Sketch Club, historic buildings, collections and the children & community they serve followed by a tour of the current exhibit and classrooms.

The Da Vinci Art Alliance across the street will be exhibiting "Crossing Boundaries" An international postcard Open Call combined with group exhibition of 6 immigrated local artists, a small intimate two part exhibition. Both exhibits are free to AGTS Members

Catherine Street is a one way street that you will need to approach from 7th street. Classes are not held on Friday, which will provide ample free parking to AGTS members in the faculty & student lot. (left side of street) Enter through the main entrance on the right side of Catherine for access to the exhibit and Sanctuary.

Parking

Main Entrance

Sanctuary

